

John Johnson Collection: Johnson Adds Mary Gardiner Collection

Mary Gardiner

Mary Gardiner (1928–2002), a schoolteacher, lived in Northleach and was a stalwart of her local church and Women’s Institute. She had numerous interests, including local history, archaeology, and gardening and collecting playing cards and card games – especially Happy Families. Her drive and meticulous attention to detail are exemplified by the Cotswold Happy Families game that she devised and published in 1997 and in The Catalogue of Happy Families Games (three volumes), co-authored with John Hayter between 1997 and 1999. Mary Gardiner bequeathed her collection of Happy Families and other Card Games to the John Johnson Collection. There was a display of Happy Families cards from the collection in 2007. Titled Mr Bun the Baker. Although it was in a single case, 120 cards were shown.

Mary Gardiner assigned numbers to her packs and these are referenced below.
